

Barba Armchair

Named after the French word for candy floss and influenced by the classic cartoon characters, this is the Barba armchair, which can be used with the Barba sofa, or on its own.

Designed by Andreas Engesvik, the armchair can be upholstered in leather or the textile of your choice and its comfort levels are exceptional. The Barba armchair is compact but has a strong aesthetic expression, with proportions that gently hug and conform to the body. Great dimensions for relaxed dining as the armchair can be used at a dining table.

Wooden frame with polyether and wadding. Can be upholstered in leather or textile. Solid wooden socket in beech.
